

Pixel Inventory Diary UI — Free Sample

A free taste of the modern, cozy, cute pixel-art UI kit

Thanks for trying Pixel Inventory Diary UI! Every sprite is hand-made original pixel art. This free sample lets you test the style and quality before grabbing the full pack.

In This Free Sample (10 pieces)

Just enough to assemble a little inventory UI — panels, slot, icons, button + stat bar:

FreeSample/
— UI_Button_Pink.png		a pink button
— UI_Panel_Slot.png		an inventory slot panel
— UI_Panel_ItemArea.png		item-grid area panel
— UI_Panel_DetailView.png		item detail-view panel
— UI_Progress_BG.png		stat-bar background
— UI_Progress_Fill_Pink.png		stat-bar fill (pink)
— UI_Icon_Cake.png		food icon
— UI_Icon_Headphones.png		gadget icon
— UI_Icon_SingleRose.png		gift icon
— UI_Icon_Deco_Friendship.png		stat / decoration icon

Want the Full Set?

This is only a taste — the paid packs include a whole lot more:

What you get	Resource	Resource + PSD
50+ icons — all categories (currency, food, daily, gadget, gift) + color variants	✓	✓
Full UI set — diary background, all panels & buttons, decorations	✓	✓
Progress bars in every color (orange, pink, blue, green, yellow...)	✓	✓
20-frame page-turn animation	✓	✓
LuckiestGuy font (with license)	✓	✓
Layered PSD source — recolor / edit every icon & UI part	—	✓

💡 Building a game in Unity? There's also an All-in-One pack that adds ready-made scripts (tweens, page-turn, tabs), prefabs and a demo scene — drop it in and it just works.

Using the Sprites

- Import the PNGs into your engine's UI (a Unity Image , or any 2D / UI system).
- For crisp pixels, set the texture filter to Point (no filter) and turn off compression.
